7 Kick Back Boots was really nice in his qualifier and Per Nordström usually has his two-year-olds in good shape when they make their debut. Faces interesting conditions here and is the horse to beat. 1 Honor Combo qualified in Finland in August, but has got a new trainer since then. Perfect lane here should mean a good position. Has to be considered together with Claes Sjöström. 4 Liza Kronos is well-bred and a contender if she handles this starting position. 8 Just Water was good in her qualifier.

5 Million Moni has started his career in a nice way and comes from a really impressive victory. Is developing well and should reach a nice position from this lane behind the gate. Our pick in this fairly high-class race. 4 R.K.Lotus is coming more and more. Has raced barefoot in the last two starts but galloped last time. Has to be considered without a mistake. 8 Solito was very good in the last race. Should be followed despite tougher opponents and a poor lane. 3 Papillon Wine is mainly a place bet.

2 Arpö Elegant scored a really nice win and is very good for this class. From a perfect starting position he has a good chance of reaching the front and from there he will be hard to beat. 1 Frances Will is the main challenger for both the lead and the victory. Has scored a couple of good wins and races barefoot now. Has got a layoff and the form is hard to predict. 3 Katinka Zet is driven by Jepson now. 8 Here I Come is gifted but poorly drawn.

4 Chat Room scored an impressive win at Gävle. Tough trip from outside the leader at Åby last time, but now the main scenario is that he reaches the lead and once there he will be hard to beat. 1 Blank was not at his best in the last race. Jepson is interesting and if he manages to hold the lead, the Gimpanzee son is an early choice. 8 Gap Kronos finished quickly in the last Derby heat and will need some luck from this lane. 3 Giotto Grif was not empty in the last race in Finland.
