RANK

8 Cool Trix came back well after a gallop in the last race. The eight-year-old likes the short distance and should have a good chance to win. 7 From The Mine reached the front in the last race but then gave away the lead and got locked in with energy spared. Will probably be driven in the lead this time and is the horse to beat. 3 Fly By C.A. is well drawn but hard to predict today. Has the capacity to fight for victory. 1 Swagger will reach a good position and will benefit if the pace is high. Has to be considered if finding an opening in time.

6 Guli Rasmus owns nice speed but is not completely reliable. Ulf Ohlsson for the first time and should have the best chance to win in an otherwise wide open race. 4 Bjarte Kiro hasn't convinced at the end, but in terms of capacity he is good for this type of race. 9 N.Svea has two runs under his belt after a long break from racing and is starting to get closer to top form. In the mix. 8 B.W.Princessan has not started for a long time, but if she is even close to her top form she is possible straight away.

RANK

6 Tougherthanothers won easily in the last race and showed fine form. The four-year-old is a quick starter and if he finds the lead - which is the main scenario - he will not be easy to reach. 7 Gabor has won three of six starts. Top form and the filly is the main challenger to our pick. 9 Arizona is fast when she can save her speed until the home stretch. Fights for victory with the right journey. 8 Jazz For Sass is coming back after a break and for a new trainer. Hard to predict, but has the capacity to be in the mix.

6 N.Sixten had not started for almost two years before the last race and did really well. He has probably made a lot of progress and from a good starting position he can lead the race all the way. 9 Njord won the last race despite a gallop on the way. He scored a nice victory two starts back. Third in a row? 10 Vännfors Sessan gave up at the end in the last race. The mare is fast with the right trip from behind and should be considered. 7 Philo did well in the last race and has the capacity to win this race.

RANK

7 Beast has the highest capacity in this race and even though his form is hard to predict, he is ranked highest in this difficult handicap race. 11 Arpi Broline is one of the few horses with good form. He has a tough number, but looks nice and will pass many opponents here. 1 Speedy Path M.G. will lead this for a long while - and it could now be time to take the first win ever. 10 Oak L.A. prefers to run in the lead, but is in fine form today and is one of several horses who can win.

RANK

10 Agarita competed last Saturday in a final race, but galloped straight away. Drops down a lot in class and should have a good chance of taking the first win of her career. 9 Urgent Beat galloped in the seasonal debut, but was much better in the last race when he finished third. He will improved by this race and has to be considered despite this lane. 2 Merillion followed well as third last time. Has two runs under his belt and is now making an exciting debut over the short distance. 1 Caliber Af Teda is consistent and could surprise if finding an opening at the end.
