7 Devils Tongue has galloped in all three ridden starts. Is the horse out of Sandra Eriksson's duo who has shown the best form lately and he is normally tough and strong. Good chance. 3 Scorzone likes to race under the saddle and has been consistent and good. 5 Swagger has not been at his best for a long time, but owns good capacity. Hasn't really impressed under the saddle so far, but should be followed here. 6 Djang Limit owns good skills too.

4 Pearl Hazelaar has shown good ability throughout her career, but been a bit inconsistent. Made her debut for Hanna Olofsson in the last race and scored a really good win. She is very good for this class and has top chance with a similar performance. 10 Jean Crowe owns great strength but doesn't always trot well. Will challenge if he competes at his best. 5 Harley F.I. is an early challenger too. 1 Federer Broline could be a place bet.

8 R.K.Kiara has been improved for Markus Pihlström and shown fine form lately. Is versatile and faces mediocre opposition. Good chance to reach the front. 12 Sonoma L.A. finished with energy left in tough company in the last race. Will not be easy to resist at the end together with Rikard N Skoglund. 7 Arizona sprinted fast a bit behind the winner. Certainly improved by that run under the belt and is a quick starter. 4 Ajamaja can do it tough.
