MARJORIE THOMPSETT AUNTIE MARJ MEMORIAL AMATEUR RIDERS' HANDICAP HURDLE (5) 4yo+ (Rated 0-100)
£9,100 2½m28y (4050 Metres)

Going: Good

Left handed, undulating, with a steep climb from the end of the back straight to the finish. Races over hurdles are generally steadily run, but be wary of horses kicked for home a long way out, the testing finish regularly catching out those who look to be moving comfortably before meeting the uphill section. Fences are rightly regarded as easy, though casualty numbers are still higher than such as Sandown, Ascot and Warwick, probably on account of the standard of runner being low.

FINE POINT (IRE) (18) (C)
1P/46043-1 5 12-0 | 76.2kg

Adam Nicol  Mr P. W. Mullins
Comfortable, well-backed winner of a 2m handicap on only his third start for capable new stable here last month. Manner of that performance makes him very interesting in his bid to follow up, especially with Patrick Mullins booked, however he's not a guaranteed stayer over this longer trip.

Patrick Neville Miss Venetia Thompson (71b/3kg)
Sole hurdles success came at Carlisle in October 2024 but has been running creditably this year, doing all he could back over a more suitable trip when third of 11 at Sedgefield in early-April.

Susan Corbett  Miss Rebekah Duffy (71b/3kg)
Improved to open his account in convincing style at Huntingdon (25f, soft) on final start for Henry Daly in early-March. Since purchased for £12,500 by new yard, and while his handicap form looks solid, he's not an obvious sort to benefit from a drop in trip.

4

RICKETY GATE (12) (D)
1/60334P-7 11 11-3 | 71.2kg

Nicky Richards  Mr Harvey James (71b/3kg)
Veteran who added to a creditable record fresh when fourth at Carlisle (19f) on seasonal return, however he's finished well held both starts subsequently, and is partnered by an inexperienced amateur.

97

5

USHUAIA DANCER (67)
24/2- 8 11-2 | 70.8kg

Justin Landy  Mr John Dawson
Low-mileage 8-y-o who shaped as if retaining all his ability when chasing home a Skelton-trained gamble on first start for nearly 2 years at Newcastle in late-March. That reads fairly well now and he's entitled to go close if reproducing that form.

C'MON SO (IRE) (43)

Lucinda Russell & Michael Scudamore Miss Megan Davies (71b/3kg)
Hinted at ability in a bumper before finishing well held in 3 quickfire runs over hurdles in the spring, and while his opening mark hardly looks a generous one, he should at least benefit from the switch to a handicap/return to a longer trip.

BETTING FORECAST:

5-2 Fine Point, 11-2 Ushuaia Dancer, 11-2 Cuillin Ridge, 15-2 Byron Hill, 10-1 Malangen, 12-1 Rickety Gate, 14-1 My My My Delilah, 20-1 C'mon So, 33-1 Follow The Leader, 66-1 bar

TIMEFORM VIEW:

It's hard to get away from recent course winner FINE POINT, who still looks a well-handicapped horse for his emerging new yard and should hopefully get the longer trip under a patient Patrick Mullins ride. Ushuaia Dancer could go close if reproducing his Newcastle form on second start back from a significant absence.

1	JAMBEAREE (IRE)	s	75
	3 10-12 68.9kg
	Brian Ellison	Patrick Wadge
Little promise on the Flat and others more appealing on this switch to hurdling with headgear retained.
2	MOUNT EDEN (IRE)		84
	3 10-12 68.9kg
	Shay Slevin, Ireland	J. J. Slevin
Showed a bit more than previously in first-time cheekpieces in 11f handicap at Killarney on his final Flat outing for Donnacha Aidan O'Brien last month, despite being left poorly placed. Related to above average hurdlers and one of the more interesting contenders.
3	STEEL FIXER	s	76
	3 10-12 68.9kg
	Brian Ellison	Nathan Moscrop
Has shown only modest form at up to 1½mon the Flat, so the switch to hurdling needs to bring about improvement. Wears cheekpieces.
4	SUDBURY HILL (IRE)	★	100

	Harry Derham	Paul O'Brien
Fairly useful Flat winner who turned in his first poor effort since joining Harry Derham in 1½m handicap at York last month. Yard took this race last year and he'll prove hard to beat if transferring his Flat form to hurdling at the first attempt.
5	TINY RIOT (IRE)		83

Failed to pull up any trees in 4 Flat starts for Michael Bell but pedigree offers hope she could show more now hurdling being out of a fairly useful hurdle winner.

	Ben Pauling		Harry Cobden
	A winner on hurdling debut in France, he shaped well on the back of a breathing operation when runner-up on handicap bow at Ascot in late-March, having been left with a lot to do. Harry Cobden should suit his style perfectly and he's fancied to go one better.

TIMEFORM VIEW:

MOJITO DES MOTTES looked unlucky not to collect on handicap debut at Ascot and provided he's in similar form on the back of a short break, can make amends with Harry Cobden taking over. Two Auld Pals is feared most given his course record.

	Sam England	Jonathan England
Notched a second C&D win (both off the same mark) in game fashion on his latest start, but he's probably vulnerable off 4 lb higher in a better race.
6	STYLISH RECRUIT (IRE) (13) (C)	s+t	 100
	P5PP01-65 8 10-6 66.2kg
	Sandy Thomson	Patrick Wadge
Seems to save his best for this course, winning here in April before shaping better than the result over C&D (suffered tack issue). Found the drop back in trip on a sharp track against him at Kelso last time and can resume winning ways back over a more suitable test.
7	ROBERT D'ORES (FR) (35) (CD)	s+t	97
	1421466-7 9 10-3 64.9kg
	George Bewley	Jonathon Bewley
Course regular who never looked like landing a fourth C&D success here on his latest start and this is a stronger race than he need contest.

TIMEFORM VIEW:

Plenty of course regulars on show and STYLISH RECRUIT is fancied to record a third success at the track. Sunset Hill is in the form of her life and could go close if seeing out the longer trip, while lightly-raced Abbey Scope may still have more to offer.
