6 Have A Drink On Me does not win but is strong and likes the long distance. She was closely defeated in a tough company last time. 8 Zucchini C.D. was sixth in the Stoderbyt last year. She is now returning after a long layoff but has had a strong track record. 3 Strawberry Googoo was expected to be on the way up in the last race but the horse was too fiery in the lead. 7 Tutankhaton is developing and was faster from the start in the last race with an American bike. Same equipment now.

1 Capriolo has shown good capacity and the trainer praises the horse's development after surgery. Not at his best last time but is working well and a quick starter. 3 Mandalouna was a bit unlucky in the last race when tested in a tougher company, but the form should be intact. Can open fast. 8 Cashflow S. has made two starts on Swedish soil and for a new trainer. Was also good in the last race and has nice speed. 6 Bellmans Painter was very good last winter and has been matched in tough races since then.

6 Get A Wish comes from a win in the Golden Division where he won comfortably from the front. Second over the finish behind Don Fanucci Zet before that but got disqualified. Nice task. 2 Oracle Vixi has raced very successfully for Christoffer Eriksson but got an impossible trip in the last race. Goes for the front here and is the main challenger. 1 Bonus Credit can also open, but he did not convince last time and the stable is not very optimistic. 7 Dats Tore is not bad at all and comes from a strong victory.

1 Wingait Stefan is impressive and in the last race he won easily from outside the leader. Has been working well after that and should have top chance to find the lead. 12 Banzai Brodde challenged a good horse in the last race from first over and did well. Challenger, but poorly drawn. 11 Calmin also won in strong way last time, he was sent to the outside of the leader before the final lap and finished in an awesome 12.5/1200 meter. 3 Nazario has a very exciting breed and is back after a layoff now.

7 Global Silvio galloped still fighting for victory in the last race and showed good speed during the final lap. The stable is pleased - our favorite for the lead. 13 Luna Lane has a bit of a weak track record but it sounds really good now before this debut for a new trainer! 2 Isaia Degato was clearly on the way up barefoot for the first time in the last race and challenged the leader all the way from the outside. 8 Scorpion d'Inverne was also tested barefoot in the last race but got locked in with lots of energy left.

6 Fleetfoot S.S. has started really well for Robert Bergh and won the V85 very easily two starts back with energy left. Not as good last time but is working strongly again. 10 Mamadou Pellini won very comfortably from the lead in two starts back but did not convince in the last race. Difficult post. 11 Arcania S. has done really well for Christoffer Eriksson. Has made quick money though. 1 Princess Beluga is fast and comes in fine form.
