3 First One Diamond is doing really well under the saddle and is one of the better horses in Scandinavia. Will face a small field here and together with Kristine Kvasnes he should have top chance regardless of position. 2 Daddy Pop has not started for a long time and his form is a bit hard to predict, but he likes to race under saddle. He is the main challenger. 4 Vitro Diablo is a very quick starter and could be the leader of this race. 1 Code Young is really good every now and then and has put in a couple of strong efforts. Interesting seasonal debut here.

6 Crusher started his career very well with victory. He is talented and the three-year-old son to Calgary Games has an excellent chance to score a second straight win. 9 Ultimate Tile is just like our pick, very well-bred, as his father is Face Time Bourbon. Has made two very nice efforts so far and is the main challenger. 7 Trivium Ann Maria is more experienced than our top duo, but she faces stallions/geldings which is not entirely easy. 4 Woke Up In Love will race barefoot and with an American bike.

6 Trollvill Af Sola was a huge favourite in the last race and has impressed so far. He is still developing and looks very reliable. He has top chance. 5 Magnums Ophelia finished second behind our pick in the last race and could score a new victory this time. 2 Fløy Willy is not that bad and has good place chance in this field. 10 Finnskog Rezer owns good speed but needs to avoid a mistake first.

7 Lykkje Laila has won more than every third start she had made. Really good third spot despite galloping in the last start and Eirik Höitomt knows the horse well. Despite a 20 meter handicap over the short distance they should have a good chance of winning. 3 Valle Fia opens fast and should have a good chance to take the lead. Once in that position she will not be easy to pass. 6 Fjellkos Borka is not entirely reliable. Top form. 2 Seles Tequila won despite a poor lane in the last race.

4 Grisle Tore GL shows time and time again that he is one of the absolute best cold-blood horses today. Was second in the last race and got defeated over the home stretch. Is tough and strong and has a good chance to find the lead here. Difficult to beat. 1 Tordenskjold beat our pick in the last race but he needs some luck along the way to win again. 6 Voje Lotta meets stallions/geldings, but uses to put in great efforts. 3 Kinge Svarten has not convinced lately but owns quite good speed.

8 Tayno B.B. has been up and down lately but is now stepping down in class. When he is at his best he opens very quickly and he prefers to run in front, so we can expect an offensive start from Wassberg. 3 Lippi didn't convince in the last race under the saddle but had scored a couple of wins before that. Owns good starting speed. 2 Followthatdream E.P. is reliable and has shown great form lately. 10 Cadillac Star is really speedy and likes the short distance.

10 Urban Tile owns good capacity for this class and Malmin is pleased with the Face Time Bourbon son. Still inexperienced but he has done really well so far and faces mediocre opposition. Good chance. 5 I.D. Jive will race with a Norwegian bridle for the first time, which is a very interesting change. 9 Valla D'Primadonna is speedy and defeats many horses with the right backs along the way. 11 Nicole B.R. is the most experienced in this field and has shown that she can do it tough.

1 Peacekeeper looks almost unstoppable today. Convinced in the last race and has a very good starting speed. He is good from all positions, but from the lead he will be difficult to pass. 5 X.O. has shown great resources and finished really well in the last Kriteriet. Owns good strength, but the horse is only three years old. 10 Lynet McQueen has been consistent and trainer Hamre is pleased with his horse. 9 Cogburn is in good form and should not be overlooked with the right journey.
