5 Frankie Fredericks has not won yet, but put in a couple of really good efforts and the horse is coming more and more. Despite this tricky lane he should have a good chance of scoring his maiden here. 8 Lets Rock S. returns after a layoff. Has done well so far and is a contender despite this 20 meter handicap. 9 Topup Charlie scored a nice win three races ago. Possible with the right trip. 3 Julia Gold Edition has got a break and the form is somewhat hard to predict.

3 Henessi Butja makes an interesting debut under the saddle. Has shown great speed resources, but been a bit up and down. The opposition is relatively tough, but together with Jonathan Carre he should have a good chance of winning. 5 Jealous Rain has scored three wins in a row in this discipline and done really well. He will be in the fight. 10 Piraeus Boko has very nice speed resources and opens fast. Has to be considered. 7 Make The Song likes to compete under the saddle and is at least a place bet.

3 Don Corleone made his debut for Björn Goop in the last race and did well a bit behind the winner that time. Certainly improved by that run under his belt and from a good starting position he should get a nice journey. Our pick. 4 Timing did alright as fourth in his debut. Belongs to a stable in fine form and has to be considered. 9 Pivot Dragunski makes an interesting debut for David Persson. He has to be considered without a mistake. 12 Superiorspellpow. S runs barefoot behind. Possible with the right trip despite this number.

3 Joakim Palema is very speedy and capable for this class. From a perfect starting position he could find the lead. Has to be considered regardless. 2 Zoncolan is really strong and has done well for the new trainer. Prefers to run in front. 1 Atomic Pepper is a 3-year-old who faces older competitors, but has been matched in good company. 5 Evan Pepper is possible too despite his young age, just like his stable companion.

4 Speed Change has really impressed for Robert Bergh. Has got a break, but is working well according to the Robert Bergh stable. Will probably get a tough journey. Could prove to be simply the best. 1 Ideal Stone gave up from the lead in the last race but probably needed that run under his belt. Towards the front again? Has to be considered. 2 Jeriko Brick did not convince in the last race but is good enough to be in the mix here. 3 Kyrie Eleison has not lived up to his full potential this year but is good for this class.
