6 Vicstile has done well this year but is still missing a win. Nice task here and good number. Our pick. 5 Florry's Julie won two out of four races last year but has not been as successful lately. Has good speed and is definitely fast enough to be in the fight for victory. 3 Filly's Domesttro made an early gallop in the last race. Scored a good second place in August and with a similar performance he could be in the mix. 7 Despacito has not started since December 2024 and the form is of course hard to predict. 4 Lucca scored a close but comfortable win last time from the lead. Could reach the front again and from there he is the horse to beat. 6 Cool Hand Energy got a run under his belt in the last race and his form has probably improved a lot. In the fight for victory. 5 King Size kept up the pace well in the last race after a tough journey on the outside during the final lap. Won comfortably the previous race and looks to be in top form. In the mix. 3 Alunita comes back after a pause, but will be racing barefoot and an American bike straight away - which is interesting.			A: 4-6 B: 5-3-2-1 C:

11 Brenne Bernadotte was on his way to a fifth consecutive win in the last race but did not trot well over the home stretch and galloped. Should have top chance if he trots well. 3 Nibo Ö.K. won by a wide margin from the lead last time. Will probably get an offensive trip towards the front and from there he is an early contender. 10 M. L's Rakkaren is consistent, but does not win very often. Fine form and good chance to be in the mix. 4 Birk Eldsvarten uses to put in consistent efforts. Gets a defensive trip here and is mainly a place bet.

4 Björli Bolt finished well from behind the leader to a second place last time. Can open fast and there are many indications that he reaches the front shortly after the start and then the six-year-old should have a good chance. 2 Eld Brando comes back after a short break and although he may lack form he is one of the better horses in this race. 1 Birk Faxen can hardly hold the lead here, but will still reach a good position. Could cause a surprise if the favorite has a bad day. 3 Moi Oda competes barefoot behind and with an American bike - which are exciting changes.

7 Kom Solen gave up away the lead in the last race and had some energy left at the end. Goes for the front here and from there he leads the race for a long time. 9 Rikkola does well every time. Now she races barefoot and with the right journey the mare will fight for victory. 4 Öygard Ronja took her first win of the year last time and showed that she is in top form. With a similar performance she could score a new victory. 12 Skinnes Storm galloped suddenly in the last race. Was good before that and will pass most of the opposition at the end.

6 Brostile R. competed in the Norwegian Trotting Derby two starts back, but galloped directly. Nice conditions here and the four-year-old is our winner here. 7 Fabulous D'Arc did well in the last race after a two-month break. Has good capacity for this class and an early challenger. 3 Don't Read This was closely defeated in the last race and showed fine form. Doesn't win very often but should be considered from a good starting position. 5 Behind The Kop was far behind in the last race and there are big question marks about his form. Normally in the mix.
