RACE 4 — V64-1 — Auto 2140

7 Elmaharajah Can has won twelve of 19 starts and in the last race he took the lead after one lap and won without being empty. Is certainly well prepared. Our winner. 4 Frenchy Boy has been improved recently and showed great form in the last race. 5 Bravo Chico has good capacity for this class. Hard to predict though considering the long break. 8 Twin Peak found a late opening in the last race and was not empty. Top form and should not be overlooked.

RACE 5 — V64-2 — Volt 2140

9 Undinia is extremely tough compared to many others in this race and she handled her ridden debut in the best way, although in a very mediocre race with only three participants. The best horse. 1 Zidane C.D. likes to race under the saddle. Has put in strong performances and should have a good chance of taking the lead, from where he won from last time. 6 Kim Peek likes this discipline too and has made many strong efforts. Carre is a big plus. 8 King Mr Theo has not won yet this year but is consistent and good.

RACE 6 — V64-3 — Auto 1640

6 Without Question is the stable pleased with and with two runs under his belt, his form should be top notch. The Chapter Seven-son showed nice starting speed in the debut and will most likely find the lead here. The horse to beat from there. 11 Motson has scored some really nice wins and is improving with each race. Tougher task now, but interesting changes. 12 Jackson Flow has high capacity and despite completely different conditions compared to last time, he is an early choice if he avoids a mistake. 9 Pippi Schermer is not bad either.

RACE 7 — V64-4 — Auto 1640

4 Kissed By Rain is often in the mix and sets nice times. The driver knows the horse well. Quick starter and goes for the front. 3 Älvdans can open quite fast and is undefeated from the front after two attempts. Good driver and barefoot for the first time. 8 Havsnymfen started very promisingly as a 3-year-old, but has not convinced at all this season. Back after a break now. 6 Glory Lane has good speed for this class but is not reliable.

RACE 8 V64-5 Auto 1640

1 Dark Photon Face could not hold the lead in the last race, but it wasn't far away and then the result would have been completely different. Is a frontrunner and the horse to beat from there. 4 Gustav Simoni put in an incredibly sharp finish to win the last race. He is fast enough to challenge for the lead, but he is also good from behind. 5 Blixt Lane has been brilliant and won very easily from the front in the last V85 race. Top form! 2 Stamsite is approaching top form and would benefit from high pace.

RACE 9 V64-6 Auto 2640

2 First Wise L. has good strength and very high capacity for this class, but is far from reliable. His form is good and if he just avoids a mistake, he has a good chance of winning. 6 Xture Rolls has shown promise and put in strong performances, but was not as good as expected in the last V85 race. Down in class. 11 Global Giant has been at least third when avoiding a mistake. He has great ability and is one of the few horses in this race who can do it tough. 9 Mondo Pellini should be on the way up and passes many opponents with the right journey.
