Summary: KOBA D'HILAIRE (1) has found her ideal conditions at this track and looks difficult to beat with Matthieu Abrivard back in the sulky, having already partnered her to victory. Her task is made easier by the fact that her main rivals, KAID DEL GREEN (9), who has been specifically targeted at this race, and the consistent KAMA D'EM (10), must both start from the second row. Recent winner KIBRILLE MONTAVAL (3) also deserves consideration.

In excellent form and ideally positioned just inside the handicap limit, he looks a strong contender. JAZZ SESSION (5), Arnaud Maillard's sole runner on the card, and JOSS AIMEF (13), who should improve significantly after a comeback run, also merit consideration.

Clearly returning to her best form, she should have too much class for this field, despite having to start from the second row. LEGENDE DU GERS (4), who has been remarkably consistent, and recent winner LYSANDRA (1) look like her main dangers.
