2. POCA GEN - Fourth in a Class 1 at Bordeaux-Le Bouscat over 2,400m on 29 October. This Quinté+ has been part of his menu over the years and he did win it in 2024. He can rise to the occasion and might be a promising outsider

3. SPANISH BREEZE CEN - Finished 6th in a Class 3 at Deauville over 1,500m on 21 October. He has had two comeback races over distances too short and should be at his peak for this race. His rating has dropped which is in his favour

8. LOHENGREEN - Came home 4th in a Class 2 Handicap at Marseille-BorÉLy over 2,100m on 12 October. The distance could be an issue but he likes the soft tracks and his rating makes him highly competitive

9. ZILYA - Finished 5th in a Class 3 at Divonne over 2,400m on 18 October. Has failed to show in Quinté+ races but could benefit from a 1kg rating drop. She could run well if the ground is not too soft

10. BRITANIA - In good form and finished 3rd in a Class 2 Handicap at Saint-Cloud over 2,500m on 25 October. Is back in form after a disappointing start to the season but she finished third last year and should be competitive again

16. SWISS MONEY - Finished 7th in a Class 3 Handicap at Mont De Marsan over 2,000m on 17 August. Returns from a layoff and fitness could be an issue. He is umlikely to fight out the finish

Summary: KING TREZY (11) loves the soft going, should be ideally suited to this course, his rating has dropped and he comes off an excellent last effort against stronger. The one to beat. LOHENGREEN (8), the only 3yo in the field, went close in a Quinté+ off a rating of 38. The concern is the distance as he failed twice over 2,400m. Third last year, BRITANIA (10) comes in with a lower rating and should be competitive. SPANISH BREEZE CEN (3) should enjoy the soft conditions. AGADOR (1) loves this track.
