4 Lust For Life gets the tip in this first heat to the Danish Derby. She is the only filly but has competed against stallions and geldings all the time and taken ten wins in 13 starts. Early challenger. 9 Lookerbie Diamond has shown really good form lately but needs a bit of luck from here. 5 Lucky Love is mainly a place bet.

2 Lonesomerider has clearly earned the most money and is also well drawn here. He will probably be in the lead early on and will then be the horse to beat. 9 Lynet McQueen is the logical challenger. The horse is now trained by Frode Hamre and has done well there. Tricky number. 1 Leicester has won two out of six races this year and will probably get a nice trip from here. The position behind the favorite? 6 Luther King has won five of 13 races and seems in good form. He will face tougher horses now but could cause an upset.

4 Lee Marvin has a perfect task here. He is a very quick starter and will certainly take the lead early on. From there he will not be easy to beat. 9 La Liga Boy is developing nicely for Christoffer Eriksson. He could challenge the favorite but has a much more difficult starting position. Stefan Persson drives. 7 Labour Spring earned a lot of money last year but has not won yet this season. Is good enough to be in the mix. 8 Limerick Downs has won three out of four races this year and is coming off two wins in a row. Poor number and tougher opposition.
