1 D'artagnan Face makes his debut for a new trainer after a couple of mediocre results. Robert Bergh gets the chance and here he has found a very nice task for the horse. Faces perfect conditions and will be hard to beat here. 8 Maroon Day is the only challenger. However, he faces many handicaps. Possible if he competes at his absolute top level. 4 Ilex P.R. has shown good form. 6 Extreme A.F. is matched in good company.

4 Mill Iwujii did well in the first two starts of his career. Comes from victory and is developing well. This starting method should normally be an advantage. Has to be considered. 6 Maverick Silver has put in nice performances most of the time, without winning. The four-year-old is coming more and more and now he has a run under his belt after a short layoff. 2 Loaded Alissia owns quite good speed and is a place bet. 3 Golden Tones has finally got a good starting position.

3 Madame Mearas has been in tough company most of the time lately and done well. She is not completely reliable, but very good for this class. She is speedy and should be seen as having a good chance of lead throughout the worst opponent. 9 M.T.Tomorrow's Hope has developed really well since she came to Robert Bergh. Is matched in good companies and owns good strength. In the fight for victory. 6 Malkia is a nice trotter with good speed. 7 Nice Steel is matched in France. Possible.

9 Fleetfoot S.S. got a tough run last time but still set a nice time and shows that she is developing well. She is strong and can normally do it tough. Good chance. 6 Nicole Silvio never had a real chance from a poor starting position in the last race. Showed good form before that and this short distance should be an advantage. Has to be considered. 4 Cuarto De B. has galloped in two straight starts, but is tough for this class. 8 Turfmans Nancy does well most of the time.
