RANK

1 General Japp has won five of 13 races this year and earned the most money. Seems in good form and should have a nice chance to win here.

4 Bragd won seven races last year and has done quite well this season too. Is consistent and a contender behind our favorite. 7 Prins Villiam has won three out of seven races this year but is now coming back after a long break. May need this race but is an early choice directly behind our winner. 3 Brosjan has also got a short break. Is quite consistent but doesn't win very often. Mainly a place bet.

6 Gamestile was superior in his debut two starts back. Raced in Sweden as recently as last Thursday and did really well as third from the outside of the leader, only closely defeated. Top chance if he handles tight starts. 5 M.J.Brady makes his debut here and is of course a bit hard to predict. Should be considered early on. 1 Catniss was a very surprising second in the last race and clearly positive. Good lane and a contender behind our banker. 8 Lille Mustang finished fifth as recently as last Friday. Has not won yet after eleven attempts. Could be a place bet from here.

5 Föynland Bork has been heavily backed in both starts but not lived up to the expectations. He can certainly do better than that and should be considered. 9 Stensvik Lotta has started well and comes from a couple of quite good performances. She is a very early choice in this field despite this double handicap. 8 Kling has been heavily backed so far and was a big favorite last time but not at his best then. Should not be discounted but he has to be improved. 10 Kringlers Tord has started quite well but comes back after a layoff. Possible if well prepared.

10 Lester Green has won four of eleven races this year and is coming off a convincing victory. Good form and a nice chance to win despite this starting position. 3 Phoebe B.R. has won two of ten races this year. Won very easily from the lead in the last race and has to be considered here too. 5 World Of Love won from the lead in April but galloped in the last race. Has got a break after that and probably goes for the lead again. 7 Golden Rags has done quite well this season and earned the most money. Comes from a good second place and is an early choice.

11 Evergreen Bar won a V85 race at Gävle last December. Has met very tough opposition in Sweden and got a run under his belt last time. Much easier this time and our winner despite this lane. 2 Roosevelt is definitely good for this company but has not raced since January. May need this race but should be considered straight away. 5 Foreign Affairs has won four of 14 races this year and is coming off a convincing victory. Good form and early choice. 10 Moni USA has had a pretty good season so far and comes from two V85 races. Easier opposition this time and is possible.

12 S.G. Mistral was brave as third in the last race in Sweden. He had taken two straight wins at today's track before that and he has won six of ten races this year. Poor lane but still our pick. 8 Canopus finished nicely to victory in the last race and is in good form. He has a difficult lane too but should be considered early behind our favorite. 2 Grumbazz Kini has a better lane than our top duo and that could decide the outcome. Did well as third in a ridden race last time. 6 Skate Trix is also possible behind our winner and took an easy win two starts back.
