Summary: NANO UP STAR (9) has been utterly dominant in winning his last two starts and is strongly fancied to complete the hat-trick. The main threat could come from the front runners, particularly NOUBA D'ATOUT (5), who has a golden opportunity to get back on track. It is difficult to split the two runners from the Langlois yard, but NIGHT DE JANEIRO (4) gets the narrow vote over NUIT A LA GRAVE (7), having already shown his liking for this course.

Summary: LOUP INDIEN (14) has only found the very talented Manhattan Emge too good for him this year. He is a class act and looks well placed to add another victory to his tally. The battle for the minor honours looks far more open. LOYAL FRIEND (7) has enjoyed a few weeks off but will be racing barefoot on his return, which is generally a positive sign from connections. LOUISDOR DECHAMBOU (10), who has been remarkably consistent, and LUMINOUS STAR (13), who could take another step forward, also have plenty going for them.

Summary: JOYAU DE L'ITON (7) has finished runner-up on his last two starts, including in a key race at Saint-Galmier in late October. He deserves to get his head in front and could finally make the breakthrough. JAS DU TRUFIER (8), who finished fourth in that same contest, looks the main danger alongside JOLIE FLEUR OR (4), who has been well tuned for this particularly favourable engagement. JUSTIN DES MARAIS (1) was an excellent finisher three weeks ago and should not be dismissed lightly.

Summary: HAPPY FACE (5) arrives in excellent order following a convincing fourth-place finish in a leg of the G.N.T. at Nantes and holds a leading chance on that evidence. Of the Terry stable's representatives, HISTORIC DAY (8) appears the best equipped to make a significant impact. HOLDING GIRL (12) posted an encouraging performance last time and merits consideration, as does HYDROMEL (6), whose connections have chosen this opportunity to bring him back to the region following his return to top form.

Summary: KOUBA BLUE (15) has been imperious on her last two outings, one of those victories coming over this very course. She looks capable of conceding the distance allowance to KALIROE DE BEAUVAL (6), who recently got the better of several of today's rivals at Castelsarrasin. KERNOLENN (2), runner-up on that occasion, also has sound claims of making the frame, as does KALINA STAR (14), whose latest performance is best overlooked.

17. KIKI - Disqualified twice in last three starts, including last time out in a Class F at this course over 2,400m on 3 October. Hard to trust but is barefoot and capable of earning some money

Summary: KENNEDY TOUCH (11) enjoys a particularly favourable opportunity from the front line and will be looking to make the most of it. However, he faces a strong challenge from the chasing pack, headed by KRISTAL DU PALAIS (13), who will be racing totally unshod for the occasion, and KSAR BLUE BOCAIN (14), who is seeking to bounce back from a disappointing effort. KALINEO PENEME (12) may simply have done too much too soon last time and is another who deserves a second chance.

Summary: JEZABEL DE LORGERE (1) has forged a formidable partnership with her amateur driver and gets the vote. She is preferred to GAPACHE DE HOUELLE (5), who clearly retains plenty of ability despite being a ten-year-old. JULIA DE MUTRECY (4) is particularly effective when racing without her shoes and posted a reassuring effort in her latest outing a few days ago. Back in the same configuration, she is expected to confirm that return to form. JOB DU MOUCHEL (8) is generally consistent and also boasts a sound record with his partner.
