RACE 1

SEA DEER HANDICAP (4) 3yo+ (Rated 0-80) £10,800
6f3y (1210 Metres)

Going: Good to Soft (Soft in places)

The Yarmouth round course is a narrow, left-handed, oval track, about thirteen furlongs in extent, with a run-in of five furlongs. There is a straight mile course. Apart from a slight fall just before the run-in, the track is perfectly flat, with sharpish bends, and prominent racers are favoured on the round course at distances up to a mile and a quarter. The track was shut for the majority of 2015 to allow the surface to be relaid.

Dual 6f/7f winner for Karl Burke last winter and gained first success for current yard in 4-runner handicap at this course (7f) in July. Proved disappointing on all-weather since but may do better back here.

EBF FUTURE STAYERS MAIDEN STAKES (Sire and Dam Restricted) (3) 2yo £22,500 7f3y (1410 Metres)

Going: Good to Soft (Soft in places)

The Yarmouth round course is a narrow, left-handed, oval track, about thirteen furlongs in extent, with a run-in of five furlongs. There is a straight mile course. Apart from a slight fall just before the run-in, the track is perfectly flat, with sharpish bends, and prominent racers are favoured on the round course at distances up to a mile and a quarter. The track was shut for the majority of 2015 to allow the surface to be relaid.

Draw: N/A Pace Information: Very Weak

William Haggas's newcomer DIVINE RHYTHM is out of a juvenile winner and may be able to follow in his dam's footsteps first time up here. Liberty's Hall looks the likeliest danger of those with experience.

EBF STALLIONS JOHN MUSKER FILLIES' STAKES (Listed) (1)
3yo+ fillies and mares £70,000 1¼m23y (2030 Metres)

Going: Good to Soft (Soft in places)

The Yarmouth round course is a narrow, left-handed, oval track, about thirteen furlongs in extent, with a run-in of five furlongs. There is a straight mile course. Apart from a slight fall just before the run-in, the track is perfectly flat, with sharpish bends, and prominent racers are favoured on the round course at distances up to a mile and a quarter. The track was shut for the majority of 2015 to allow the surface to be relaid.

Draw: Favours Low    Pace Information: Even

David Menuisier

Won a listed race at Saint-Cloud in October and returned after 7 months off with respectable second of 9 in a similar event at Le Lion-D'Angers in May. Clearly not 100% in Group 3 at Newcastle (1¼m) before going off too hard in listed event at York last time. Needs to raise her game appreciably.

Simon & Ed Crisford

Smart mare who won a pair of Group 2s in Meydan earlier in the year, latterly the 2m Dubai Gold Cup. Made a creditable return to Europe when ½-length fifth of 9 to Caballo De Mar in a blanket finish for the Prix Comtesse Vigier at Longchamp in May. Off since but this is a marked drop in grade.

John & Thady Gosden

Has won 3 of her 5 handicap starts, producing a smart effort to nail Sky Safari late in 1¼m event at Lingfield in January. Seemed totally unsuited by the most testing conditions she's encountered to date when well beaten back on turf at York (soft) last month. Back down in trip.

Ended 2025 with back-to-back 1m victories and enhanced her form further this season, scoring on return in 1¼m handicap at Doncaster in April. Far from disgraced in Group/listed company on her last 2 outings at up to 1½m but needs to pull out more.

William Haggas

Well-bred Sea The Stars filly who improved again when landing a 1½m Goodwood listed race on reappearance. Shaped a bit better than the results suggest on her first 2 starts at listed level but underperformed at Newmarket last time. Freshened up since.

Is clearly no worse for a light 2026, in the frame for the third time in as many starts in good company when ¾ lengths second of 13 in listed race at York (1½m, soft) 27 days ago, albeit no match for winner. Should give her running again back down in trip.

Smart sort with 6 wins on speed-favouring all-weather tracks, including a Lingfield Group 3 in February. Left poorly placed back on turf in Group 2 at Chester 11 weeks later and far from disgraced returning to the all-weather at Newcastle since given the severity of her stumble out of the stalls.

Ed Walker    Kieran Shoemark

Took advantage of a good opportunity back in novice company at Pontefract (1m) in June. Seemed unsuited by lack of early pace when third of 7 in handicap at Windsor next time but posted a career best upped in trip/grade when third of 13 in York listed race (1½m, soft) latest, clear of rest.

George Boughey    David Probert

Maiden winner last year who showed improved form when making the frame in 1¼m listed races at Goodwood in May/June. Didn't find as much as seemed likely in Naas Group 3 before having a hopeless task from her position in the Snow Fairy Stakes at the Curragh latest. Faces another stiff task.

SEET (89) (BF)

John & Thady Gosden

Half-sister to Kalpana who confirmed debut promise when scoring at Wolverhampton in May. Improved again when following up in a 1m Doncaster novice and went through the race as if ahead of her opening mark in the Sandringham at Royal Ascot last time. Bred to stay 1¼m and remains with potential.

Ralph Beckett    Edward Greatrex

Rangy filly who became yet another to frank the Sandringham form when making it 3 wins from as many starts on all-weather in 9-runner handicap at Lingfield (1¼m) 36 days ago. This demands plenty more but further improvement certainly possible.

TIMEFORM VIEW:

FAIRY GLEN has been off since the spring, but this is a marked drop in grade and she's taken to make her class tell. Seet has improved with each run to date and may have further progress in the pipeline now tackling listed company for the first time over a trip she's bred to stay. Rhapsody is holding her form well and should give another good account back down in trip.

TIMEFORM VIEW:

A useful handicap but the eye is drawn to ENOCH, who could step up better than a handicapper given the impression he's created so far. The assessor has been very fair with Point of Contact so he's second on the list, ahead of Masked Warrior.

Going: Good to Soft (Soft in places)

The Yarmouth round course is a narrow, left-handed, oval track, about thirteen furlongs in extent, with a run-in of five furlongs. There is a straight mile course. Apart from a slight fall just before the run-in, the track is perfectly flat, with sharpish bends, and prominent racers are favoured on the round course at distances up to a mile and a quarter. The track was shut for the majority of 2015 to allow the surface to be relaid.

Failure to keep straight cost her further success at Goodwood 3 weeks ago (demoted) but her limit may not have been reached if she can keep straight with this track perhaps a help. |   |                                      |           |   |      |                         |     |

| Found some improvement and proved her stamina for this far when chasing home a useful prospect at Ripon (1m) in July. Couldn't capitalise on what looked a good opportunity when fourth at Windsor but she did get it right at Lingfield (1m) 2 weeks ago. Significantly up in distance for handicap debut.  |   |                                      |           |   |      |                         |     |

| With handicap/seasonal debut behind her, proved a different proposition upped further in trip when scoring comfortably at Ffos Las (1½m) in June. Raced too keenly when last of 5 at Doncaster but held up to better effect trying 13f and had no issues seeing out that trip when third at Musselburgh.     |   |                                      |           |   |      |                         |     |

| Showed improved form when off the mark in 6-runner handicap at Hamilton (11f) in July and made the most of a good opportunity to double her tally at Ripon (1½m, good to firm). Found combination of 13f and soft ground too much of a test at Hamilton and better expected here with Loughnane taking over. |   |                                      |           |   |      |                         |     |

BETTING FORECAST:

4-1 Alice De Clare, 11-2 Caraway, 6-1 Clocker, 15-2 Nowshesdancing, 8-1 Ladykirk, 10-1 Shangri La, 11-1 Willow Wood, 12-1 Princess Honey Bee, 16-1 Rossa Raheen

TIMEFORM VIEW:

Quite a few to consider here but on this more conventional track, ALICE DE CLARE will hopefully chart a straighter course and if that proves to be the case, there are further races to be won. Ladykirk is readily forgiven her last run and she can resume her progress, with Caraway also of interest at the foot of the weights.

Going: Good to Soft (Soft in places)

The Yarmouth round course is a narrow, left-handed, oval track, about thirteen furlongs in extent, with a run-in of five furlongs. There is a straight mile course. Apart from a slight fall just before the run-in, the track is perfectly flat, with sharpish bends, and prominent racers are favoured on the round course at distances up to a mile and a quarter. The track was shut for the majority of 2015 to allow the surface to be relaid.

| First past the post in 6f Nottingham maiden in July but demoted to second after causing interference. Spurned what looked a good opening at Salisbury next time but made no mistake at Kempton 2 weeks ago, despite being slowly away. | Soft-ground winner of this race from 6 lb higher a year ago. Has yet to hit that level this season, running particularly badly the last twice. Hopes pinned on application of a tongue strap.                                                                                                      |    |                                     |           |   |     |        |                      |           |

| Just denied in a novice in May on third of her 4 starts in Germany for Andreas Wöhler (sold for 12,000 gns in July) and offered something to work on starting out for this yard when third at Lingfield. Never a factor upped to 7f at that venue 2 weeks ago and a tongue tie is now reached for. |    |                                     |           |   |     |        |                      |           |

BETTING FORECAST:

9-2 Court Drive, 5-1 Remi Mae, 11-2 Molly Mac, 15-2 Startled Lady, 9-1 Raffles Angel, 14-1 Come On Eibhlin, 18-1 Thunderous Love, 18-1 Ironist, 25-1 Q T Pie, 28-1 Minnie Idol, 33-1 Marianne Mozart, 50-1 bar

TIMEFORM VIEW:

COURT DRIVE found plenty for pressure to secure win number 2 of 2026 over C&D 17 days ago and a 3 lb rise looks within range with Loughnane taking over. Remi Mae and Startled Lady were first and third in a Kempton handicap recently and both can remain very competitive.

TIMEFORM 1-2-3:

1. COURT DRIVE 2. REMI MAE 3. STARTLED LADY
