8 Gamin Jaba has started to compete under the saddle recently and has done well apart from the gallop last time. Now it is time for a sulky race again and this looks like an appropriate task for the ten-year-old. 7 Global Easy Rider won the last race against easier opponents. His form is on the way up and he should be able to finish second. 3 Classic Hill U.S. was decent in the last race and finished third. Is hardly good enough to win but could be a place bet. 5 From The Mine is a quick starter but has difficulty finding his form again.

3 Penny Sting showed good speed behind the gate in the last race and easily found the lead. Gave it away then but is certainly driven in the lead now and she will be difficult to catch. 5 Katinka Zet took the lead in the last race and won comfortably. Good for this company and could win this race. 2 Tigris Tooma did well in the last race and looks to be on the way up. Will soon score a victory. 11 Attrahera has done well in all starts. Difficult lane, but cannot be discounted.

1 Alfred Gratien has been in tough competition towards the end and done well. The horse to beat from the lead. 3 Mister Malabar is coming back after a pause and his form is therefore hard to predict. However, he competes without shoes for the first time which is of course interesting. 5 Fire Brigade has four runs under his belt after a break. Tough and strong and would benefit from high pace. 4 Los Del Rio Sisu won an easy race from the lead last time. Nice form and should not be underestimated.

5 Hu SÅ Hemskt met good horses in the last race. Now the gelding is back in his normal class and should have a good chance of winning. 10 Permin won easily in the last race and was good the time before too. The seven-year-old owns great potential and is a contender in this race. 11 Stens Erume is the most successful horse in this field with seven wins. If he handles the start he has to be considered. 2 Tekno Boris galloped on the way to a second place shortly before the finish last time. Nice speed and in the mix without a mistake.

11 Viktor Roc is not reliable but has shown nice speed resources in the past. This is the first start for the new trainer and he should have a good opportunity despite this number. 2 Diskoteka has done alright so far without really impressing. She has more to give and the filly could surprise. 7 Myrsjös Qarin was clearly improved in the last race and able to win easily from the lead. In the mix again. 3 Princess Märtha comes back after a break and now she will run barefoot and with an American bike for the first time.

7 Sister Nell is normally far too good for these rivals and she should have top chance - especially if she gets to the lead - which is the main scenario. 1 Popcorn Vrijthout did well in the last race, finishing second in the Swedish debut. Not a quick starter but has a strong finish. 3 Ajlexes Magicwoman opens fast but will give away the lead to the favorite. Gets a nice defensive journey. 2 Drömmen Om Elin finished well in the last race, but normally meets too good horses this time.
