RACE 4 — V64-1 — Volt 2140

2 Banzai Brodde has competed in much tougher races and the three-year-old has by far shown the best times in this company. Good chance to reach the front. Top chance to win. 1 Cheerful won from the lead in a STL race last year and impressed when she beat tough mares. Has had a long break, but owns nice potential. 4 DouglasdeCastella has shown quite good capacity for the previous trainer. Interesting debut for Robert Bergh. Races without shoes immediately. 9 Aegon J.W. owns great potential for this class when he competes at his best.

RACE 5 — V64-2 — Auto 2140

7 MT Televinken has started late, but performed above expectations. The six-year-old has shown both strength and speed, not least most recently when he finished 10,8/800 meters. Strong and can do it tough. 8 Maneater in Pj's has won three of five career starts. Good enough to win a race like this. 6 Noche Snapper has been improved and finished with a lot of energy left in the last race. 4 Vikens Move It did not convince in the last race, but was clearly positive before that finishing second.

RACE 6 — V64-3 — Volt 2140 — RANK

10 Lucille was not fit last time, which explains the poor performance. Is good for this class and the Face Time Bourbon offspring owns good strength. Interesting lane and Östre goes for the lead. 13 Bravo Chance is consistent and steps down a bit in class this time. Needs some racing luck but is an early choice. 8 Stensjös Farit won the last race finishing 13.5/800 meter. Goop again! 5 Ile De France is in good form and finished fast in the last race.

RACE 7 — V64-4 — Auto 2140 — RANK

7 Fade My Way has been matched in tough companies and finished very well behind Chat Room in the last race. Much easier opposition here and without any major problems from the start, she should have a good chance. 10 Pioda Boko has shown the right development curve lately. Tricky lane since she is a quick starter, but if she can save the speed she will finish fast over the home stretch. 12 Numina has very good speed and strength for this class. Can pass everyone. 6 Miss Countess owns good capacity for this class and opens quickly. The form is a question mark.

1 Bill Weasley has shown high capacity for this class and good starting speed. Good chance to take the lead, like two starts back at Axevalla when he won in a slightly superior style. Banker. 6 Charly Diablo has impressed in the first three races and looked really nice. The opposition is getting better and here he could get a tough journey. 7 Denniz Popp did well in the last race, but above all he avoided a mistae and gained some new confidence. Capable. 5 Erica Palema has been matched in quite tough companies and finished second in the last race.

RACE 9 — V64-6 — Auto 2640

11 Chippen Dee has been improved in two races for Törnqvist and he likes the long distance. The four-year-old is both strong and fast, versatile and could run barefoot! 12 Fantasy Sensation has has been up and down, but has already shown his high peaks for trainer Bergh. Tough enough to be in the mix. 1 Kiss Me Sisu has taken five of six career wins from the front and is the early favorite for the lead even though the distance is a bit of a question mark. 4 Hans Palema has good strength and is stepping down a bit in class after being matched in the V85. Would prefer quick pace.
