2. ORIENT BAY - Third in a Class F at Marseille-BorÉLy over 2,400m on 2 November. Put up a great debut effort, despite racing wide for most of the journey

3. OSCAR DES CHARMES - Outclassed the opposition in a Class F at Marseille-BorÉLy over 2,400m on 2 November. Came back well after his earlier disqualification and can win again

4. ODESSA ELLIS - Outclassed the opposition in a Class F at Saint-Galmier over 2,650m on 25 October. That was a promising debut win and she needs to progress from there

5. OVERTON SEVEN - Threatening to win and was runner-up in a Class F at Marseille-BorÉLy over 2,400m on 2 November. He has run well in both of his starts so far and should be competitive again

6. O'MALLEY DE CANI - Finished 3rd in a Class F at Marseille-BorÉLy over 2,400m on 2 November. He dead-heated with ORIENT BAY (2) in that race but had an easier passage

7. OWEN QUICK - Fifth in a Class F at Marseille-BorÉLy over 2,400m on 2 November. Held by others in this field

8. ORIA UP STAR - Qualified in 1'20"6 at Feurs on 24 September. Finished well behind ODALYS DE COUZAN (10) and is unlikely to reverse that form

9. OKANAGAN - Qualified in 1'19"4 at Caen on 5 May. Has been out of action for more than 6 months and will need to prove himself

10. ODALYS DE COUZAN - Qualified 3rd in 1'19"0 at Feurs on 24 September. That was a decent effort although the top qualifier won with ease in 1'17"9

Summary: Two runners have started their racing careers with aplomb but the edge could lie with OSCAR DES CHARMES (3) who learned from his debut run when disqualified and came back to win well. ODESSA ELLIS (4) is a small filly but showed great tenacity to win on debut. If they both fail it could open the door for OVERTON SEVEN (5), who has placed in both his starts, and ONDINE FRANCE (1), who is better than his last run may suggest.

NEW STORM (14) has finished second in both his starts and looks the main threat. NEVER KNOW (13) was runner-up behind the first selection last time and while unlikely to reverse the form, should be in the mix. 14. LASKA DU LIVIER - Came home 9th in a Class E at Marseille Pont De Vivaux over 2,650m on 31 October. Unlikely to be competitive

Summary: LES MOTS BLEUS (3) made huge improvement in his first run for trainer Charley Mottier and has now found a race that should be well within his capabilities. LE DOCTOR (9) is not without ability and could provide a strong challenge as long as he behaves. LOUMIODO (4) is hitting form at the right time and if he continues to improve should find a place on the podium. L'ESPOIR DES BAUX (10) looks to have the best chance of those on the second tier.

Summary: This race looks the ideal vehicle for LE POULIGUEN (14) to find his winning form, but he lacks consistency and cannot afford any errors staring 25m back. A change to his shoeing configuration could eke further improvement from LUPIN DOUZOU (5) and give him his first victory. LYNX DES LOYAUX (6) is reunited with Théo Briand with whom he scored his last victory, while LEXO JELOCA (7) is on the up and cannot be ignored.

The fillies MAMY BLUE TIT (3), who can be temperamental, and MISS GABRIELLE (8), who will race without shoes, also deserve consideration.
