Summary: JOFESCA BUISSONAY (9) made a strong impression when finishing third at Pornichet last time out. A two-time winner at this track with Théo Briand in the sulky, she looks a serious contender here. J'ADORE CELESTE (4) comes into the race off a solid fourth-place finish against younger rivals. With those competitors absent this time, he holds a leading chance. JEUDI DES RACQUES (10) was disappointing last time out and will be looking to bounce back. JULIAN DARK (5) has been consistently reliable throughout the summer and should not be dismissed.

LATINO PASS (6), who is in a rich vein of form, looks set to lead the challenge alongside LET'S GO SAUTREUIL (9), who has had a freshen-up since winning over this course in late June. Summary: There are many possible winners in this field. MIRADOR (7) gets the vote after stepping up considerably since racing without shoes. He will nevertheless need to watch out for MISTER DES LOYAUX (5), whose only drawback is that he is making his comeback, as well as MUSIQUE AMOUR (3), who is equally effective in both disciplines, and MOGADOR DE LATZ (13), who made a promising return to action. Still open to improvement, MARCEL SEVEN (10) could prove an all-or-nothing proposition.

Summary: NOE DE CRESCY (3) was far from disgraced in defeat at Saint-Galmier and should be involved in a close battle with NAHINE D'OCCAGNES (2), who appears to have plenty of ability.
