6 Cross Lane returns after almost a year out of competition. Didn't convince at all last year but has a good chance to take the lead here.

4 Kingston D.K. was one of the better horses of his year in Denmark. Hasn't impressed yet for Maria Törnqvist, but has enough capacity to be in the mix. 7 Go Kenneth Go sprinted really well in the last V85 race after a late opening. 3 M.H.Getonmylevel has been competing under the saddle lately and could be improved now.

3 Magic Park was in pretty good company in the last race and took the lead but got defeated at last. Should normally improve with every race. 1 Fire Starter made his debut for Rick Ebbinge in the last race and finished alright as third. 10 Man Of Means is perhaps the best horse in this field based on what he showed in his first career start, but has not convinced since then. 2 Jelly Bean is chasing the first win ever and runs barefoot this time.

2 Irdiddio Mil made his first start in the last race and did well as third. He is probably improved by that run under his belt and this doesn't look to be the toughest race. 5 Highexplosive H.H. did well in the debut in the last race from behind the leader. Has to be considered. 1 Morningstar Derm faces nice conditions with an inner lane in the first circle. Clearly improved as second last time. 9 Valencius B.B. is a bit inexperienced but owns quite good speed.

5 Unexpected Outcome has galloped in two starts this year. He was really good barefoot last year and he is much better than the results suggest. Early choice. 1 L.Way Joli has only one run under his belt after a long layoff. He did really well that time as fifth and will probably be improved by that run under his belt. 10 Kant'e has not been successful lately, but is strong and is possible with the right journey. 12 Vicky Montoya is strong and tough.

3 La Liga Boy has high capacity, but has not convinced lately and has also galloped in two consecutive starts. Is strong enough to be in the fight. 5 Mr Explosive H.H. has impressed a lot and will probably be competing in the V85 soon. He is all-round and should be considered early. 2 Clean Table is not entirely reliable, but has improved for the Untersteiner stable. 1 Intercooler got locked in with plenty of energy left in the last race and could get revenge now.

2 Jerry Lee has done really well during his career. He is only getting better and better and is too good for this class. From a perfect lane he should have an excellent chance. 3 Yalla Yalla is really fast from the start and should have a good chance of reaching the front. 8 Poison Ivy Bros has a disappointing starting position but is definitely good enough to challenge if things work out reasonably well. 1 Leaps And Bounds has an interesting starting position and runs barefoot.
