5 So Far So Good Zaz is doing well for the new trainer. Two starts back was a tough race in the V85 - but still had some energy left at the end. In the last race he followed well from first over. Towards the front now! 8 Pearl Hazelaar is perhaps the best horse, a younger sibling to the top horse Riet Hazelaar. Unbeaten without a mistake but debut with spikes shoes is probably a minus. 6 Backwood Gilda is developing well and put in a strong final lap in the last race. 4 Djalovaner has won a couple of races in Finland but is harder to predict here.

2 Van Gennip Sox is a bit tricky. She won by a wide margin but met quite easy opponents. After that she has struggled - second last she probably galloped on the way to victory. Nice task. 9 King Of Dreams is well-bred and has made one start after a year's layoff. Gave up in the lead then, but run under his belt now and easier opposition here. 8 Pure Dream is gallops a lot but has good capacity. Won easily despite a big mistake. 1 Hopeful Step has won nine of 14 races and should be considered.

12 Healthy Meal is not that bad. She put in a good finish three wide during the final half lap in the last comeback and should be improved. Great stable form! 10 Merveilleux Sisu is a late bloomer but is starting to improve now. Top driver up again, good reports. 13 BWT Johnny B.Goode is used to quite tough companies. He has also competed very well and won at Boden. 15 Miss Lemonade was beaten by a fiery horse on the outside in the last race and followed bravely. Prefers to run in the lead though.

8 Babish has been difficult and taken his time. The fast four-year-old looks to be developing nicely and was delicious in the last race after a quick final lap. Early lead? 1 Venerable Tile followed well in the last race after a tough final lap and against quite good horses. Difficult to hold the lead. 7 Ajamaja just kept up the pace in the last race and did not impress. The trainer is optimistic. 6 Redvelvet Bros has done well for the new trainer but was not as good in the last race.

10 King Of Djazz was third on the outside on Friday and passed the field quite easily. His form is strong and he is good for this company. 8 B.Sacamano is strong and likes this distance. He was strong in the last race from first over and got just closely defeated. Is as good as our pick from the same stable. 4 Il Capitano Mearas finished really fast to victory. Quick starter. 11 French Kronos is good for this class and is fit again now after throat problems. Gets a defensive trip.
