3 Tangelo Lane got locked in in his debut, but the three-year-old hasn't missed a podium place since. Two wins in a row and this could be the third. 4 Oitavos came back well after a gallop in the last race. Quick starter and could lead this all the way. 11 Nueva has done well in tough competition lately. Going down a bit in class now and could prove to be the strongest at the end. 1 Bullseye faces good conditions here and with the right journey, he will be in the mix.

3 Iolite took the lead in the last race and won very easily. Could reach the front again from this lane and once there he won't be easy to catch. 7 Uranium Tile comes with two straight wins for a new trainer. Now barefoot is announced for the first time which is an exciting change. 6 Global Horizon looked nice over the finish line in the last race and had some energy spared. One of several contenders who can win this race. 4 Ninepoints Joker finally got it right in the last race and took the first win of his career. In the mix again here if avoiding a mistake.

2 Global Gangbuster didn't have a real chance in the last race and crossed the finish line with energy spared. Nice lane and should have the best chance to win this race. 8 Headstrong has been in nice form all summer and autumn. Quick starter and if he reaches the front, his chances will increase. 3 Dream Loverboy has a lot of potential but is not entirely reliable. If he avoids a mistake, he is good enough to challenge for the top places. 1 Transcutaneous has been doing well in a bit behind the winner of late and is in better form than the result line shows.

RACE 5 — V65-4 — Auto 2140

10 Ferrante Broline finished well in the last race. The previous race he got locked in with a lot of energy spared and there is no doubt that he is in top form. Good chance despite this number. 5 Mezidon Leka galloped in the last start, but had shown nice pace in the previous starts, which gave him three wins in a row. Has to be considered from the lead. 7 Exil On Main St won from the lead two starts back. Difficult to get there now, but should still be considered early. 11 Krutallan is still in top form, but from this starting position it will still be tough to pass everyone.

RACE 6 — V65-5 — Auto 2140

8 Fantastic Hall has had a little break after some tough races. He was a scratch due to fever in October but if he is in reasonable form he should have a good chance of winning. 6 Facetime Dream won straight away in the comeback two starts back but did not trot well at the end in the last race still fighting for victory. Normally in the mix. 7 Take Him Sober was not quite good enough against tough opposition in the last race. He has changed trainer before this race and should be considered even though his form is a bit hard to predict. 10 Rock Solid is in top form, but still chasing the first win of the season.

RACE 7 — V65-6 — Auto 2140

9 Mellby Mammon put in some really solid performances during the summer. He is coming back after a break and is probably well prepared and should have a good chance despite the lack of races. 1 Valencia can open quite fast and if she manages to hold the lead, her chances will increase. 10 Mercedes Hall sprinted really well in the last comeback race and will be even better this time. 12 Mabellissime is an interesting French horse who is now making her comeback. Should not be discounted despite a tough starting position.
