RACE 1 — V4-1 — Auto 2140

1 Jacky Barosso has shown great starting speed in the Netherlands. Is clearly capable, but not very consistent in his performances. Top chance to reach the front and once there he is the horse to beat. 10 Whistler has been brilliant in two career starts. Looks to be something special and has a good chance here too. 3 Lyanna was really nice in the last race and is possible again from a good starting position. 4 Motson will compete barefoot now which is interesting. Is developing well.

7 Joakim Palema scored a good win in the last race in Norway. Is tough and strong and should reach a good position despite this lane behind the gate. Is the horse to beat. 3 Richmond won the last V85 race and fought bravely that time. Tougher this time, but is a contender considering he can open fast. 10 Stargazer took a well-deserved win in the last race. Will be driven again by Björn Goop. 4 Universal Tile owns quite good speed and should not be overlooked with the right kind of trip here.

7 Riverdale Z. was really good as second behind La Yuca in the last race. Is tough and strong and has been matched in good companies. Looks like he has the best chance of winning here. 4 Drag Racing is a quick starter. Chases revenge after galloping in the last Breeders Crown final. Will not be easy to defeat. 3 Global Election never had a real chance from a tricky number last time. Barefoot now is a plus and this lane is perfect. 2 Global Gaiety sprinted fast in the last comeback and will be improved by that run under his belt.
