8 Lupin Sisu has won five races and finished second once in six starts in Finland. He was a bit disappointed in his only start in Sweden, but is the one who has shown by far the highest capacity here. Top chance. 4 Venerable Tile still hasn't won a race but it was a clear step in the right direction last time. Main challenger. 5 Luscious Sisu has two runs under his belt after a long layoff. Not bad at all for this field. 6 Abelha Sisu is mainly a place bet.

1 Watch Out did really well as third in the last V85 race and is getting better and better with each start. Interesting conditions here with the inner lane in the first circle. Should he reach the lead, he will not be easy to pass. 4 S.G.Dangerous has shown good form for a long time and has improved quite a bit barefoot. Has to be considered. 5 Hunting Sober is matched for a race of this importance. 12 Conrads Palle has good speed but needs some racing luck from this double handicap.

4 Pommery Boko has started the career promisingly with two wins in six starts and is really well-bred. Should have a good chance here in this mediocre company. 6 Rhapsody Newport makes an exciting debut for a new trainer. Can open fast, but is all-round and has a nice chance regardless of position. 11 Joe Go Gaga was good in the last comeback race. Strong and speedy. Shouldn't be overlooked. 5 Global Forever has shown good form recently and should normally be considered early.
