He rates as the one they all have to beat. LARRY DU DOUBS (5), fitted with a new rshoeing configuration following his seasonal reappearance, is expected to strip much fitter and shapes as a serious danger. L'AMIRAL DE LUNE (11) is enjoying a rich vein of form and should be involved in the finish. Summary: LADY AURELIA (6) scored in impressive fashion on turf last time out and, once again racing barefoot on all four, looks well placed to follow up back on a hard surface. LOKIE KADESH (5) is not the easiest mare to trust, but her ability is unquestionable and she is capable of taking a race of this nature if she remains faultless. LIVERAINE (4) finished a promising second on her sole start of the season and is one to follow on her first outing for her new stable. The in-form L'ETINCELLE (7) continues to thrive and has another strong chance of making her presence felt.

MA ROSE DE SARTHE (13) has been carefully prepared for this tailor-made assignment and is expected to bounce back into the spotlight. MAGIE D'ORLY (6) was an unlucky loser at La Capelle on June 14 and is well worth another chance,.
