7 Ängsrask won the Swedish Derby in July and finished fourth in the Norwegian Derby last time after a tough start. Is working well and normally passes all opponents here. 4 Py Viking has faced the favorite a few times, and then from the same start. However, he was not fit in the last Derby race. The form is a question mark. 3 Kattelbo Elon has been consistent and good in tough companies all season. 1 Norheim Tor earned some money in the Norwegian Derby and has a 40 meter advantage now.

1 Don Fanucci Zet won easily from first over in Finland last time and is going down in class now. He hasn't tested the circular start for 6.5 years but is all-round. Top chance. 6 Parveny is the only challenger. He is fast from the start but has been a scratch after the last race. 7 Nephys Boko is still developing but has not competed against the elite yet. Interesting lane. 5 Steady Roc owns good speed but faces tougher now.

9 Pyseidon has been improved barefoot towards the end and found fine form. He won despite a tough journey in the last race and likes this distance. 12 Trönö Borken has not been successful lately but was strong after the a gallop last time and will be tested with a new driver now. 7 Ingen won over three laps at Gävle this spring. Is also a quick starter. 4 Trö Hav did alright from the second on the outside in the last race, but new trainer now and this driver is interesting too.

9 Järvsö Jan is our favorite here. He has started his career brilliantly but not been successful in the big finals. He failed in the last Norwegian Criterium but has a better task here. 1 Inkallad is used to win and looks better and better. He competed last Monday and won easily from the front. 7 Bäcklös Borken is very fast and won a Criterium elimination heat. Finds the lead? 10 Troll Knut has also reached both Criterium finals and owns good speed.

6 Ecuador Broline has been doing well time and time again and finished strongly in the Stosprintern as fourth place and then won from the lead. Is working well and has a nice task here. 9 Pralines is back on Swedish soil and her last effort was clearly positive. She has good speed for this company and should be considered. 3 Xanthis Kimberly was close to Ecuador Broline in the Stosprintern and closely defeated in the heat to the Stoderby as well. She is a quick starter and should have a good chance to reach the front. That is worth a lot in a race like this.

12 Hulte Annika is one of the country's absolute best mares and despite a fair amount of handicaps, she has a nice task here. She most recently finished well as a clear third in the Swedish Championships for fillies and mares. Magnus A Djuse again. 13 Tekno Tana was brilliant two starts back but not as good in the last Swedish Championships. Challenger. 11 Guli Stina is also good. She was very sharp as a younger horse and is about to grow into the older elite. Shoes now though. 6 Lille Rose G.L. is moving up a bit in class now but owns good speed.

5 Guli Em looks to be in great shape and in the last race he won easily in a top time. American bike now. Finds the lead? 7 Pyrotek is one of the better horses in this race and owns good strength. We forget the last race. 10 Gör Som Jag Vill is very capable and won the Criterium as a 3-year-old. He is trotting better and better lately. 3 Klack Vidar scored a nice victory and could be dangerous in the lead.
