GREG DE NIRO (6) is performing better than ever at the age of 10 and should again be involved in the finish.

Summary: There are plenty of possibilities in this evenly matched field. LE LAUREAT DU PARC (10) won with something in hand at Hyères in August and arrives fresh. He will need to be wary of the two runners from Yannick Henry's stable, headed by LUCIFER DU CAIEU (12), who can give our selection plenty to think about if keeping his mind on the job. His stablemate LAMIE QUICK (6) is in excellent form and also has claims. L'AS DE CAZOULENE (4) can take another step forward and is another to consider.

MISTER DREAM TY (7) made a good comeback when fifth and should improve for the run, although a runner-up finish would probably represent a successful outing. KHEOPS TURGOT (11) has an excellent record under the saddle, is an obvious selection and a solid choice. JANEIRO TURGOT (10) can fight for a place as he faces a slightly easier task, while KIANNICK OF NOUIC (9), racing barefoot, should not be underestimated either.
