6. PREMIER CHANT - Gelding by Chanducoq, the dam was unraced in France. Stable runners warrant respect on debut and he is one to watch for any market influence

7. MELTING MOON - Two solid runs on the flat this year, 2nd on the latest over 2200m at Hoppegarten (DEU) in a conditions race on May 10, and a win previously at Strasbourg in March. Hurdles bow and now with a leading jumps trainer. Player

13. ALBERTINE - Three unplaced runs on the flat, the latter over 1600m at Chantilly on May 12 in a maiden race. Tries hurdles and is best avoided

Summary: MELTING MOON (7) is a winner on the flat and has been transferred to the George-Zetterholm operation. He can be expected to be well-schooled and make a winning debut over hurdles. WHISKY HIGHBALL (1) has a taking profile and is one to consider if the betting vibes are positive, as is CHOEUR D OPERA (5), who will be nicely tuned by his shrewd handlers. NO PAIN NO GAIN (2) has James Reveley doing the steering and he could be one to pay attention to on his racecourse bow.

Summary: AIGLE NOIR (6) showed plenty of determination to prevail after a hard-fought battle at Dieppe last time and is still improving. He is expected to be able to follow up despite the rise in class. IRUPTA MATUTA (1) was shaping well in a recent Quinté+ over this course before falling and can bounce back from that mishap. Summary: REDNECK (10) is a previous hurdles winner over this course and was unfortunate not to be chasing a hat-trick after veering into the rails and falling in a chase last time. If none the worse for that mishap, he will be hard to beat. His main danger could be GENTLEMAN VALLEY (6), who has finished in the placings on his last three starts and was a solid runner-up behind GUETTA (1) last time. Although GUETTA (1) meets him on less favourable terms, he remains capable of being competitive. VADIVAR (9) is a strong each-way contender after scoring in a handicap hurdle at Dieppe earlier this month. JURY BLEU (8) is another to keep safe.
