5 Tekla has done most things right so far in her career and also been matched against some older rivals lately. She is strong in every way and the one who stands out. 2 Kleppe Nisseemor is as good as our pick, but has not convinced at all lately and is hard to predict. If she competes at her best she has to be considered. 6 Järvsö Josefin is coming more and more and showing good speed. 4 Bork Grandi is special and a bit up and down. Needs a trip from behind to do himself justice.

9 Grude Nils is the one who has shown the most of his year, but was not good in last year's final start and has not convinced this season. In terms of ability he should have top chance, but there are some question marks. 6 Bato Prinsen has done really well lately and is developing strongly. 3 Norheim Tor was matched in a very tough field last time. Place chance. 2 Gristle Balder G.L. has been at least second without a mistake and will now compete barefoot and with an American bike.

8 Ängsmolly never had a real chance from the second row in the last race. Although the starting position is far from optimal this time too, she is favored by the small field and should get a good trip. 7 Tangen Merete has not won a race yet but has met the best of her year most of the time. 1 Sjø Lilja has a good starting position and is one of the candidates for the lead. She will certainly get a nice journey. 5 Komnes Fina is quite consistent and good.

8 Brenne Brago has really shown good pace this year and comes with four wins in a row. Poor number but the horse is fast from the start and has shown that he can do it tough. 3 Ängsrask is the main challenger. Has impressed a lot and was on the podium in both the Swedish and Norwegian Kriteriet last year. 7 Skeie Loke has taken a big step forward this year after the winter training. 5 Guli Kasper does well a bit behind the winner most of the time.

12 Sundancekid has two runs under his belt after a long layoff and has good capacity for a race like this. However, the horse has galloped in both starts after the break. 5 Global Groovy has only won once in his career but is one of the better horses here. 11 Elton Rags is up and down but has good speed and capacity. 2 Global Freeway is better than the results show. From a perfect post, the horse should reach a good position.

10 Rooibos M.A. showed quite good capacity for Björn Goop, but is now trained by Jenny Pettersson. Is not completely reliable but now going down a bit in class. 7 Stylish Jog scored a good win in the last start after several nice efforts. Is now facing older stallions/geldings. 8 Alfred Gratien is strong and has been matched in tough company. 4 Valuga is in good shape in the first circle and was clearly positive in the last race.
