Summary: KINBALL (3) has found a second wind since joining the Pierre-Louis Desauvette yard and, if keeping in stride, should not be far from the scoring. The consistent KASHMIR DU GERS (9) is expected to once again be in the thick of the action. Rarely seen racing fully unshod, KID PADDLE (5) is a live outsider with solid claims. KAPITANO DREAM (8), presented in confident condition by his trainer, also holds a chance.

Victory is well within reach, although he will need to keep a close eye on JACKSON D'ARC (11), who finished third in a solid contest at Monpazier at the end of May. On the strength of her penultimate run, ISIS DE POULINE (14) is worth another chance, as is JANDICE STAR (12), who is proven at this track.

JINGLE DES BROUETS (6) continues to deliver strong performances and looks overdue a deserved success. JAGUAR GEMA (8) has nothing to prove at this level and should once again be competitive. Summary: NUMBER TWO (5) caught the eye with a strong late finish at Feurs last time and, with no 25-metre handicap to concede to NOUVEAU PRODIGE (7) on this occasion, looks capable of reversing the form with that rival, who impressed on his first two starts. Unlucky on his last two outings, NEAL DE TROUVILLE (4) could prove a revelation. NYMPHE DE COLMINE (3), from a yard in top form, also warrants respect.
