PRESA DIRETTA (9) has been running well without success this year, but has been consistently placed and can make life difficult for the selection. TRUE TEDESCO (12) has a good racing weight and looks like one for the each-way backers to latch on to. ANSSIO (1) has to overcome top-weight but can have a say in the finish, as can BOTICELLI (7), who can be expected to give a good account under Christophe Soumillon.

Summary: Several interesting newcomers catch the eye. MONSIEUR CHARLIE (5) makes plenty of appeal on pedigree, and with Pierre-Charles Boudot booked to ride, he could get the better of SIXTH KING (6), whose stable has an excellent record with debutants. SAN ROQUE (7) boasts an attractive pedigree and is one to monitor in the betting for further clues. ALIAS (11) has already been gelded, but with a top-class jockey in the saddle, he also merits consideration.
