5 Naranja Mearas won the debut and even though she has not won since then she should still have a good chance if she takes the lead. 7 Nickel Curve won the last race with energy spared. Is one of the hot favorites. 3 Instant Glory also won the debut and did alright in the last race too despite a mediocre result. Should be considered. 2 Mellby Orkide finished alright last time but avoided a mistake was the most positive thing. Should not be overlooked.

3 Magnification galloped unexpectedly in the last race but came back well after that. Should be able to reach the front from a perfect starting position and once there she is the horse to beat. 10 Västerbo Sparkly was in an E3 final last time. Easier now and the filly is the main challenger to our pick. 9 Show Me Heaven is consistent and if the pace is high and she gets a nice trip from behind, she will finish strongly. 2 Royal Steel is making the first start for Mattias Djuse and should not be underestimated from a nice starting position.

3 Gunpoint held strongly in a V85 race last time at Årjäng. The five-year-old can do it tough and will not be easy to resist during the final lap. 1 Okocha Boko was positive in his comeback in the last race. Nice starting position and will challenge for the top places. 2 General Patton got locked in with energy left in the last race. He has only one win in his career, but on the other hand he has never been better than he is now. 12 Unbelievable Talisman is speedy and matches the best horses in this race. However, he needs some racing luck from this starting position.
