RANK

8 Hade Tur did well in the last race after an early gallop. He has probably been improved by that run under his belt - and if he avoids a mistake, he should have a good chance. 11 Tekno Boris scored a good win in the last race. Has changed trainer since then but if he is as good as last time he should be considered. 6 Monster Loke has not started since March. His form is obviously hard to predict, but he is clearly good enough to be in the fight for victory. 12 Birger W. doesn't win very often but could surprise without a mistake.

RANK

1 Lotus Miller doesn't always trot well, but the four-year-old is significantly better than the results show. Good chance from the front. 13 Västerbo Athos has been good in three starts after a break. Tough and strong and this handicap over the short distance. 6 Vitre came back after a pause in the last race and was a bit slow in the first start for a new trainer. Better now and contender. 7 Isla Tortuga won a mediocre race last time and made a really good impression. Will pass many opponents at the end.

RANK

4 Nordprins took the lead in the last race but galloped in an effort to hold it. Faces good conditions money-wise now and should have a good chance to win. 3 Teknopys kept up the pace really well in the last race as fourth. If he finds the lead here, his chances will increase. 10 Skeie Balder is consistent and good. He should not be underestimated. 1 Pyssla has a perfect starting position and be in the mix with an opening at the end.

RANK

9 Eolo Wise L. is strong and fast and regardless of the journey the six-year-old should have top chance - especially barefoot. 1 Mastrolanni should have a good chance of reaching the front and from there he will lead the race for a long time. 5 King Of The World was clearly positive in the last race even though he only finished fourth. Normally in the mix. 6 Konnässör is in great form and should be followed from this starting position. Could cause a surprise.
